Where are we and what is going on? We are in very interesting times of great transition and are blessed to be here not to just witness it, but, to usher it in with our intent. We are now in a type of darkness from getting information as alternate media is being censored and is moving to new platforms. However, these players are taking action against Google and YouTube; an example of this is X22 Report and Pray Medic to name a few are suing. The Convington incident showed that justice and large awards are possible.

Where are we with the elections? What is going on? This is part of the plan. What we have been witnessing since Trump announced is the unfolding of a made for TV drama that is following a winning storytelling formula. We are in the final episodes of Season 4. What is the formula? As soon as the protagonist is revealed in the first episode the forces of evil feel that there is a threat and start the processes to not just neutralize the threat but, to eliminate it all together. As the protagonist gains ground, the evil forces form unholy alliances. As we get to the crescendo, the forces of evil disclose their ultimate game to usurp all power of good. However, in the final episodes good massively triumphs over evil in the most amazing unanticipated ways. At the very end we see good living the good life without the presence of evil which has been overcome.

What we are seeing in "blue" states is massive fraud, facilitated by delays in order to bring in fraudulent fake ballots, Trump votes being thrown out, more votes than registered voters. Why is this in play? Did these "blue" states in fact go "red". CA is yet to be counted and called. Most curious. You would think CA would be solid "blue" unless it isn't. Many military ballots for Trump found and discarded. Patriots want to know that their ballot was counted. Trump also did an EO that anyone participating in voter fraud be sanctioned which is basically going after assets. No assets no energy in the Power Money Control equation.

Just posted is how do you keep HRC constrained. She is the an elector in NY. Thought she could fix the sh@t for you corrupt friends. She can't travel until electoral college votes in December, which means she can be picked up at any time.

So, Trump and White Hats are allowing the fraud to set up something else. It has been reported in alt media that valid ballots have a watermark of micro dots printed on them. This tech was pioneered in the 80s by XEROX and Cannon to id the origin machine of photocopy. We do it with cash by marking bills to track dubious transactions like ransom payments. Charlie Ward has been talking about the QFS and a companion Quantum Voting System that is in play using block chain technology and quantum entanglement. In addition, it looks like ballots also are tagged for GPS. Hence, we are finding Trump ballots in the most obscure bases. Buried, in cars attempting to cross border, in rivers, etc.

Trump talked about election fraud already in 2012 highlighting that it is important to know who is counting the votes. The Republic came to a cliff edge. The restoration of the Republic is a very well-planned military and White Hat operation that has been planned over decades for this moment in time. The trap was set to allow this massive voter fraud. Trump has to lose in order to now unleash the offense play that exposes the fraud. We may see a declaration of a national emergency and potentially martial law in parts of the country. In any case when the legal ballots are counted it will show that Trump won by a landslide in the majority of the states. In any case, the good guys did not leave this election to chance. Just as foreign players, or players controlled by DS, are deeply implanted in government and corporation structures the good guys are embedded as well. As Q said, "we have it all"... all the evidence to take these players down for Treason, sedition. In addition, tech is also in play. There will be a recount and exposure of who is involved in the fraud. Charlie Ward just confirmed that the Election was a STING operation and that the Quantum Voting System was used along side and that Trump won by a landslide. This will be coming to light moment by moment. Unlike the past where we accepted things, Q and created a plethora of anons that dig for the truth and get it out enmasse.

As long as there are court cases in play surrounding the election the outcome is not valid. It is possible that there will be another election called for that will be online using the QVS that will be triggered by NESARA. In addition, before Biden announces victory it is just attempted fraud and treason. Once he announces it is now fraud and treason actively being committed. Plus, any of the media and others that jump on that bandwagon are now ensnared as well. So, let them bring it. Apparently, Obama pardoned a ton of people that last days before he left office. We had to let them commit these heinous crimes that lands a lot of players in front of military tribunal. Remember the Lindsey Graham questioning at the Kavanaugh hearings. He asked whether there are cases that are tried by military tribunal rather than DOJ jurisdiction. It is possible the reason we have heard nothing from Barr is that the DOJ doesn't have jurisdiction for the big grime of dTreason and Sedition which can yield execution. Why bother with cases under the court system when the big crime has been committed.

Let's also not forget that there currently over 200K indictments. These are more than likely through de jure Grand Juries that were trained and put in place during Obama administration. This would be an indication that we are under Common and Constitutional Law.

The US has 95% of the world's lawyers and there must be a Divine Reason for this. Perhaps, a large amount of people through class action suits will take to the courts to exert justice because of the overreaching, and unconstitutional authority being wielded against "We the People". The virus will be a key component in overreach with financial, and potential physical, damages.

This virus, and elections, opens the door for wielding malicious torts. Tort law is a very powerful tool to wield against these sociopaths and psychopaths. The characteristics of the players who are like heroin addicts (PMC junkies – Power Money and Control) is that they never have enough money which gives the power and control. Their MO is that they think they will never get caught, and when they are caught, they lie with impunity. We are seeing some real whoppers by politicians, social media giants, Silicon Valley titans, etc. They must be cornered in their criminality. The big weapon with these players, that gets their attention, is if you threaten their ill-gotten gains.

Malicious torts have two aspects to damages. There are actual damages and punitive damages, which is where it gets interesting. Actual damages can be $1. However, a jury may be so incensed by what someone did that they award a $1bn in punitive damages.

The silver bullet of malicious torts is fraud. Most of these players that wield power against us are hiding behind a corporate veil that shields them from financial liability. Even government officials have been shielded because every facet of the government has been hijacked from constitutional Republic legitimate constructs to for profit corporations... which is fraud. A fraud claim uniquely provides the ability to “pierce the corporate veil”, which removes any personal protections and allows individuals to be adjoined to a suit and made jointly and severely liable for damages. Torts that can be added to a fraud claim are outrageous conduct, abuse of process, and intentional infliction of emotional distress to name a few. Should malicious torts bring about big financial damages in court they have another potent effect against the elite that have wielded power through their wealth. Damages can not be discharged in bankruptcy. In order to appeal a judgement requires putting up the judgement amount as collateral. If the is not possible than the person has to file bankruptcy where now a trustee will liquidate assets in order to back the judgement.

The unconstitutional shutdown of the economy paves the way for massive tort cases anchored on fraud that will be wielded against government officials and industry players.

There are massive things in play that come January when Trump is sworn in again will usher in a new world that allows are of humanity the ability to prosper. We will see a restoration of the constitutional Republic. With all of the legal action that is being taken due to the election fraud, and added to that the litigation surrounding the scandemic, we will see a return to common law. Already, we have seen US flags at Trump events without the gold fringe which symbolized Admiralty Maritime Law. This is the law of the sea where common law is the law of the land. Under Admiralty Law we are nothing more than cargo lost at sea, which usurps our God given rights. Trump is correcting this; and, when NESARA is announces we will officially restore the Republic. A republic of government is the only example that we have a system were everyone prospered... a la Rome and other cities in Italy that operated as a Republic before it became the Roman Empire. Democracy was actually the Achilles Heal of Greece because it becomes mob rule where a minority can impose its will on the majority.

Behind the scenes the power elite cabal has been beheaded. This was concentrated in Venice and the Phoenicians which are the 13 bloodline families that are at the heart of the financial/economic Babylonian enslavement system. Boris Johnson, Angel Merkel, and Macron and have shut down their countries until beginning of December. With the shut down in the UK we have heard nothing from the Crown. Perhaps, its an indication that they are no longer in control of anything. Least of all their colonies. At one of Trumps recent rallies he had Nigel Farage come up and talk for less than 3 minutes. Farage adds nothing to Trump. However, Trump adds a lot to Farage and perhaps a change in the UK and it governing structure. The UK is a Constitutional Monarchy where the Crown and Privy Counsel controls everything. Parliament and the people really don't have a voice. Perhaps, the UK will adopt our Constitution and Republic form of government with Nigel as President.

The financial system is in a reboot. The Deep State is pushing for reboot given that the current system is collapsing worldwide in order to bring about a one world government, on world currency controlled by the BIS, IMF and World Bank. In parallel, the Alliance and White Hats are ushering a massive reset that allows all of humanity, and sentient life to prosper. This is through NESARA in the US and GESARA worldwide. A financial jubilee is long overdue.

Other indications show that many things have been put in place in order to restore the Republic. The Senior Executive Service (SES) was voted into law by both Houses under Carter. This is how the Privy Council was able to infiltrate the US government and put it under Crown control. Begs the question how much the Crown is complicit with the CCP which is really a tool of the DS. The SES are the top management tier of all government agencies. The players have immunity and can't be fired which is how Bruce Ohr continued to have his job after admitting his role in the Russia hoax and Clinton dossier. Given that the SES aspect is law, Trump couldn't get rid of these DS players; and, he couldn't easily get rid of SES because he didn't have the House. So he created an executive order recently that expanded the SES law to include an F class labor grade that didn't exist under the current SES structure. He can move existing SES players to F class where he has the authority to fire them.

Bottom line there are a lot of things Trump and White Hats needed to put in place to make the necessary legal moves. Plus, the people and the world needed to see and experience the criminality. What has been accomplished is massive with the scamdemic and lockdowns providing the necessary cover. The chaos of the election may be further cover to a total reset on a lot of fronts from government to finance. In any case the old structure is being collapse with no way to rebuild it. The elite are toast. GOD WINS!
